In my humble opinion, although I find the four to five West Coast Swing weekend-long events I attend in AZ/CA each year are very educational and fun, the most fun I have all year are the Contra Dance weekends (six so far in 2010). Granted, our local Contra dances are always fun, but they can't generate the same high-energy as a hall full of experienced dancers moving to one or two of the best bands & callers in the country.

These weekends occur all around the country (& internationally), we have far fewer in the West than the East, but they're still a very memorable 48-hr (approx) natural-high.

I returned yesterday, with two great carpool dance friends, Becky E. & Judy F., from Harvest Moon at the amazing & historic sprung-floor Carillo Ballroom in Santa Barbara, CA. I'd only been once before, in 2003, and had to wonder this weekend why it took me so long to return. Bands were Wild Asparagus & Clayfoot Strutters, from the East Coast, with callers George Marshall and Jeremy Korr. Approximately 220 dancers came from around the country, with most being from CA; AZ sent the 2nd largest contingent.

Note: some of these weekends are so popular they have to use a lottery to fairly choose registrants. Others fill up the first day of registration & start a waiting list, so it's important to have your registration with check postmarked on the first allowable day. I read that Harvest Moon had over 150 people on waiting list. Other weekend Contras that may take a few years of applying to get into include Contra Carnivale (San Luis Obispo in February) & Harbin Hot Springs.

With the internet it's become very easy to search for local and weekend events on sites like:

<http://www.contracorners.net/contra/links/dancemap.html>

Comprehensive international listing:

<http://www.contradancelinks.com/festivals.html>

You can see lots of additional photos (six 'Harvest Moon' folders) shot by a very nice California dancer and writer:
Sonia Sones:

Many of our AZ dancers are in some of her photos! ☺

Here are some events to check out (mostly in the West):

October 29-31, 2010

New Mexico Fall Harvest Camp aka Boo Camp

Location: Jemez Springs, New Mexico
Caller(s): Pat Tognoni and Noralyn Parsons
Band(s)/Musician(s): The Grouchy Geezers

November 6, 2010

Fall Has Sprung Dance Festival

Location: Grass Valley
California Caller(s): Nils Fredland, Joyce Miller and Warren Blier
Band(s)/Musician(s): Contra Sutra (Dave Bartley, Ryan McKasson, Marni Rachmiel, Russell Shumsky), Elixir & Hot Cider

Note: since there are usually more women than men that sign-up, as a woman it may be better to sign-up with a real or "paper partner." For guys, your chances are usually the best, but it can be very helpful to ask local women dancers if they'd like a paper partner.

Be sure and check out our own Arizona weekends; there may still be slots available:

November 12-14, 2010

Dance in the Desert

Location: Oracle, Arizona
Caller(s): Rodney Sutton and Lisa Greenleaf;
Band(s)/Musician(s): Notorious (Mark Murphy, Sam Barlett, Eden MacAdam-Somer, Larry Unger)

Coming in 2011

May 20-22, 2011

May Madness

Caller(s): TBA

Location: Prescott, Arizona

Band(s)/Musician(s): TBA

Thanks to Flagstaff, AZ's own Deb Comley and other volunteers, there were a few Contra dances for the first time this year, a few weeks ago; I'll definitely go again in 2011.

September 16-18, 2011

Picking in the Pines

Arizona Caller(s): TBA

Location: Flagstaff,

Band(s)/Musician(s): TBA

I hope others will also submit their Contra stories, photos & videos to our newsletter (www.PhxTMD.org), and/or to our Facebook & Meet-up groups: Contra Dance Phoenix.

I'm also hoping to encourage the creation of memorial pages for some of the amazing dance organizers, callers, musicians & dancers who have done so much to promote the joy of Contra Dancing in Arizona. Meanwhile, if you have stories, photos or videos of Craig Tinney, you can post them to his Facebook page—helping to keep this amazing man's memory alive for those who knew & loved him.

Happy dancing, Dave

Thanks to Dave for sharing his experiences with us all!

Let's Get 'er done!

You love those great snacks and beverages that are available at our monthly dances, don't you? Did you know that those goodies are supplied by volunteers of the club? Each month we need volunteers to help with the purchase of these items (reimbursed up to $25.00/mo), and bring them to the dance. If you are able to help, please contact Irene Lundquist at 480-820-3181.

Your time, and talent, are also needed in many other areas for the club, so please help support PHXtmd by volunteering!

The PHXtmd Board of Directors, extends a huge 'THANK YOU' to all of you who have volunteered in the past to help make our dances a success!

PHXtmd Newsletter Advertising Opportunity

Starting in 2011, with our first quarterly newsletter, PHXtmd will be publishing our events calendar with an advertising page on the back. This page is included with the newsletter, which is distributed at all dance events, sent via email to all club members, and available online on our website, Facebook, and Meet-up pages as a download.

Ads are business card sized (3.5" x 2"), and are only $25.00 per issue. Submission deadline is Dec. 15, 2010. Please contact Janice at newsletter@PHXtmd.org

 "Ecstasy — the state-of-mind, not the drug"

Beginner's Corner

Here is a helpful diagram showing you how to line up for a typical start of a Contra dance.

Interesting Facts - Did you know?...

- Contra dancing has been around since the 1600s, originating in England and France, and is experiencing a renaissance (no pun intended) of popularity.
- 'Hey' and 'Gypsy' patterns were not part of the dance until the 1970s.

Phoenix Traditional Music & Dance (a nonprofit 501(c)(3) corporation) preserves old-time music in Phoenix by presenting and promoting dances, concerts, and other special events throughout the year. Your membership supports PHXtmd's work, entitles you to discounts at most PHXtmd events, and a subscription to the Arizona Folk News, a newsletter published four times a year. A monetary donation to PHXtmd, beyond the membership fee, is tax deductible.
